An imprecatory psalm, then, is one in which the imprecation is a major element or leading feature of the psalm. Although opinion varies as to the number and identity of the imprecatory psalms, at least these nine may be included, based on the preceding definition: Psalms 7; 35; 58; 59; 69; 83; 109; 137; and 139.

Crying Out For Revival Psalm 85 Sunday morning, July 8, 2012 Englewood Baptist Church One of the great problems with us preacher-types is that we often scratch where people are not itching. We tend to address questions that people are not asking. We regularly assume that a burden we hold in the pulpit is also a burden that is felt in the pew.
